

Student Code of Respect

Written and Adopted by the 2004-2005 Student Government Association. Students are expected to hold themselves and each other accountable to these principles as members of our College community.

Principles:

We respect ourselves and others and treat each other with common courtesy.

We respect our diversity – in respect to race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, physical and mental abilities, class, age and opinion.

We do not tolerate discrimination of any kind in our community.

We take pride in our academic work and contribute actively in the classroom and our learning community.

We are respectful of our campus environment and take pride in it.

We participate in our community through attending, volunteering and voting.

We look out for our fellow students both on and off campus.

We trust ourselves and each other to abide by the policies and expectations of our community.

We speak up about important issues because each voice does make a difference.
